CURRIE AND AYTHUR.

We ask every Democrat in this Congress to stand ready to defend and protect our country from all the attacks from the friends which we say this party has.

The positions taken in the article referred to are sound, and the arguments are conclusive. Mr. Currie is wise, and has any regard for his future fame, or the permanence of the party, which would induce him to do otherwise.

He is a man of great ability. His honest and upright character, and the fact that he is a member of the opposition, will give him

a wide influence.

Mr. Currie's article is a good one.

It is nothing less than a disgainer. He takes the ground, as we understand, that Mr. Avey is a new convert, and ought not to be trusted.

The project of refuting this shan-derous article, is to be left to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of France.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs of France,

has sent a note to the French Government,

requesting him to issue a note to the
